Cold-Storage Eggs—Sale of—Labeling Required. (Chap. 1190, Act Apr. 8, 1915.)

SECTION 1. The term "cold storage eggs" as used in this act shall be construed to mean eggs that have been artificially cooled for 30 days or more at or below a temperature of 40° Fahrenheit, and no other eggs shall be sold as "cold storage eggs."

SEC. 2. Whenever "cold storage eggs" are sold at wholesale or retail or offered or exposed for sale, the case, package, box or other container in which the eggs are placed or delivered shall be marked plainly and conspicuously with the words "cold storage eggs," or there shall be attached to such container a placard or sign having on it the said words. If "cold storage eggs" are sold at retail or offered or exposed for sale without a container, or placed upon a counter or elsewhere, a sign or placard having the words "cold storage eggs" plainly and conspicuously marked upon it shall be displayed in, upon, or immediately above the said eggs; the display of the words "cold storage eggs" as required by this act shall be in letters not less than 1 inch in height and shall be done in such a manner as is approved by the board of food and drug commissioners.

SEC. 3. Any person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions of this act shall be punished by a fine of not less than $10 nor more than $100 for each offense.

SEC. 4. The board of food and drug commissioners shall have the same duties and powers relative to the making of rules and regulations hereunder and relative to the enforcement of this act as is or shall be conferred upon them by chapter 183 of the General Laws with reference to other foods.

SEC. 5. Complaints for the violation of the provisions of chapter 183 of the General Laws and any amendments thereof, or additions thereto, may be made by any person, and if made by a member of the board of food and drug commissioners said member shall be exempt from giving surety for costs on any such complaint.

SEC. 6. This act shall take effect September 1, 1915, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

Foods and Drugs—Adulteration and Misbranding. (Chap. 1241, Act Apr. 23, 1915.)

SECTION 1. Section 3 of chapter 183 of the General Laws, entitled "Of the maintenance of purity in foods and drugs, by prohibiting the manufacture or sale of adulterated, misbranded, or deleterious foods or drugs," is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"SEC. 3. A drug shall be deemed to be adulterated:

"FIRST. If, when sold under or by a name recognized in the United States Pharmacopœia or National Formulary, it differs from the standard of strength, quality, or purity prescribed therein.

"SECOND. If its strength, quality, or purity falls below the professed standard under which it is sold. Provided, That in no case shall a drug be deemed to be adulterated, as differing from such professed standard, when the variation is caused by the evaporation of any volatile ingredient or by other changes beyond control, happening after the manufacture of the same: Provided, That due care be taken to preserve its integrity."

SEC. 2. Section 5 of said chapter 183 of the General Laws is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"SEC. 5. Confectionery shall also be deemed to be adulterated if it contains terra alba, barytes, talc. crome yellow, or other mineral substances or poisonous colors or flavors or other ingredients deleterious or detrimental to health, or any vinous, malt, or spirituous liquor or compound or narcotic drug."

SEC. 3. Section 9 of said chapter 183 of the General Laws is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

"SEC. 9. Any article of food or any drug that is adulterated or misbranded within the meaning of this chapter, or which is decayed, diseased, unwholesome or unfit for
